Checklist

Spring Shorebird Sightings

Many other species of birds can be seen during the Festival as well, including a number that are hard to find elsewhere.

Early May brings the first warblers and swallows to Homer, along with Sandhill Cranes, Arctic and Aleutian Terns, Fork-tailed Storm-Petrels and Tufted and Horned Puffins. Red-faced Cormorants, Common Murres and Black-legged Kittiwakes can be found assembling near their nesting sites on Gull Island, and Common Eider, Pigeon Guillemot, Marbled and Kittlitz's Murrelets are visible on Kachemak Bay. Look for Eurasian Wigeons in Mud Bay or on Beluga Lake, and American Three-toed and Hairy Woodpeckers in the spruce wood areas. And, though not a shorebird, the always-sought-after Bald Eagle can be spotted frequently on shore and in the sky. You may find many of the 236 species of birds that are recorded for Homer and Kachemak Bay during the Shorebird Festival weekend.

Greetings Birders!

Welcome to the 24th Annual Kachemak Bay Shorebird Festival, Alaska's largest wildlife viewing festival. This year we're rolling and gliding. Try Birding by Fat Bike or Paddleboard. Tech lovers might want to try Smartphone Birding and Digiscoping. Don't worry, we'll still offer your favorite activities including Birding Hot Spots, the Junior Birder Program and Live Bird Presentations. Have your life lists handy — this weekend holds the possibility to spot over 130 migratory bird species, along with Homer's plentiful resident seabirds, waterfowl, and woodland birds.

Keynote Speakers Kevin Karlson, Dale Rosselet and Sharon Stiteler will join us for the weekend, delivering a variety of workshops and lectures. Ram Papish, our Festival Artist, will also offer workshops and share his interpretation of the Black Oystercatcher, this year's featured bird. Prints, t-shirts and more will be available at Registration.

We'll have a flock of post-birding entertainment and dining options as well, including the Bird Calling Contest and Keynote Addresses. Homer also offers some of the tastiest Alaskan cuisine — keep an eye out for Birder's Special discounts.

There have been some exciting changes at Festival Headquarters this year. We are pleased to introduce our new Festival partner, the Friends of Alaska National Wildlife Refuges, who will continue to work with the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service to bring you the Festival. Be sure to check out the Friends Information Booth at Islands & Ocean Visitor Center, attend the Birders Breakfast and consider joining their efforts.

The Kachemak Bay Shorebird Festival could not happen without the dedication of countless volunteers and sponsors. Thank you to everyone who helps and everyone who attends this amazing event.

Happy Birding!

Robbi Mixon
Festival Coordinator

Thank You

The Kachemak Bay Shorebird Festival Committee would like to thank each and every one of our presenters and guides for their energy and enthusiasm, and for sharing their vast wealth of knowledge during this year's Festival.

Thursday, May 12

High Tide 7:15am 16.5 feet | 8:32pm 15.7 feet

Cranes and Croissants

7-10am | Seaside Farm
(ALSO AVAILABLE 5/13)
View the large flocks of migrating Sandhill Cranes that feed and rest on the Seaside Farm hayfields each spring. Birder Mossy Kilcher shares her knowledge of cranes, as well as other local birds' songs, calls and habits, during a bird identification walk. Coffee and continental breakfast included. This event is not handicapped, physically-challenged or stroller accessible. Road conditions are dependent on weather. Limit 30. $20pp, $15 kids 12 & under.

Cold Duck Time

8:30–11am | Harbor top of Ramp 2, Mako's Water Taxi
(ALSO AVAILABLE 5/13, 5/14)

As the shorebirds arrive in Kachemak Bay, sea ducks prepare to head north to their happy nesting grounds. Tour Kachemak Bay's southern shore in search of the Mergini tribe. Goldeneye, Harlequin and Long-tailed Ducks are just a few of the fine feathered friends that inhabit our bays and coves. Dress warmly. Enclosed boat with open back access; no facilities. Limit 6. $60pp.

Kachemak Bay Birding, Wildlife & Natural History Tour

8:30am–3:30pm | Harbor Ramp 6, slip EE-19, M/V Lady Hawke
(ALSO AVAILABLE 5/13)
Kachemak Bay at its best. This full-day birding and wildlife tour, led by Seaman's Ecotour Adventures, takes you to the waters off the Homer Spit, Yukon Island, Sadie Cove and Eldridge Passage area, Gull Island and into the community of Halibut Cove. Watch for marine mammals, seabirds, mountain goats and learn about the fascinating geology and natural history of Kachemak Bay. Enclosed boat with open back access; boat has heat, water, and head. Bring a lunch/snacks. Limit 5. $150pp, $130 kids 12 & under.

Kayak with Birds & Wildlife

9am–1pm | Harbor Ramp 2, True North Kayak Adventures Office
(ALSO AVAILABLE 5/13, 5/14, 5/15; two trips daily)
Check in 15 minutes prior to departure time at the True North office behind Mako's Water Taxi. Enjoy a scenic water taxi ride to Yukon Island, disembark and paddle around the Island, watching for sea ducks, shorebirds, eagles and sea otters. Wear warm, layered clothes and raingear. Bring water and lunch. Light snacks and hot drinks provided. All experience levels welcome. Enclosed boat with open back access; no facilities. Limit 20. $95pp, $85 kids 12 & under.

Sea Ducks and Soup

9am–2pm | Harbor Ramp 3, Slip G-11, M/V Skookum
(ALSO AVAILABLE 5/13, 5/14)
Join longtime Alaskan photographer Jim Lavrakas onboard his sturdy boat, Skookum, and find the sea ducks that overwinter in Little Tutka and Jakolof Bays. Jim had a 30-year career at the former Anchorage Daily News, and taught photography at the college level. He will coach you for great photos. Find Barrow's Goldeneye, Bufflehead, Common Murres, and Harlequin, among others. Then stop for lunch of soup (not duck!), bread, and brownie at his cozy family cottage (prepared by his wife Ruth, "Queen of Soups") before returning to Homer Harbor. Limit 5. $125pp.

Field events, workshops and presentations are free of charge and sponsored by the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service and Friends of Alaska Wildlife National Refuges, unless stated otherwise. Even though they are "free," some require you to pre-register. All participants must pay the Festival Registration Fee.

A current bird sightings list will be posted at the Islands & Ocean Visitor Center and the Kachemak Bay Birders website (kachemakbaybirders.org).

Dress in layers; bring mud boots and your binoculars or spotting scope. Please leave your furry friends at home.

All boat tours leave on time. Please be at the slip, ramp or meeting location no later than 15 minutes prior to departure time. Refunds will not be issued if you are late for your boat.

Presentations and walks are included with paid registration fee unless otherwise noted. Please register for these events if it is requested — those with tickets will be admitted first.

Wednesday, May 11

High Tide 6:20am 18.4 feet | 7:30pm 16.7 feet

Bird Comparative Anatomy Dissection Lab

4-5:30pm | Islands & Ocean Visitor Center, Lab Classroom
Explore the anatomy of birds during this 1.5-hour laboratory based workshop. Participate in an instructor led bird dissection that examines the basic anatomy of birds and compares that anatomy to our own. This will be a fun, free workshop for ages 8 and up. This event fulfills one of the Jr. Birder requirements. Limit 32. Free, but please register.

Mud Bay Trail Family Bird Walk

6-7pm | Parking Lot at Base of Spit (intersection of Spit Road and Kachemak Way)
Park and meet in the paved parking lot at the base of the Homer Spit for a 1-hour stroll along the Mud Bay Trail to view coastal birds. The group is likely to observe a variety of shorebirds, ducks and perhaps Sandhill Cranes. The trail can be muddy, so participants should wear rubber boots or hiking boots. Bring binoculars. Limit 20. Free, but please register.

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Kevin Karlson & Dale Rosselet

Photo provided

Kevin Karlson is an accomplished birder, professional tour leader and wildlife photographer who has published several books and many bird and nature related articles for magazines and journals over the last 20 years. Kevin is a co-author of The Shorebird Guide, and the author/photographer of two photography books, The Birds of Cape May and Visions: Earth's Elements in Bird and Nature Photography. His most recent book with wife and co-author Dale Rosselet, Birding by Impression: A Different Approach to Knowing and Identifying Birds was released in May 2015.

Dale Rosselet is Vice President for Education for New Jersey Audubon and oversees the statewide public and school-based education programs, where she authored and co-authored four natural history curriculum guides as well as the book Wild Journeys: Migration in New Jersey. ### Seabird Sidetrip

9am–noon | Harbor bottom of Ramp 3,
to the right, M/V Torega

(ALSO AVAILABLE 5/13, 5/14, 5/15)

Join local bird expert Karl Stoltzfus of Bay Excursions as he shares his favorite birding places during a 3-hour cruise of Kachemak Bay. Look for Kittlitz's and Marbled Murrelets, eiders, loons, shorebirds, and many other species, with excellent close-up viewing opportunities for all passengers. Enclosed boat with open back access; no facilities. Limit 12. $70pp.

Pre-K Puffins Story with Ram Papish, Festival Artist

10–11am | Islands & Ocean Visitor Center,
Seminar Room

Join festival artist Ram Papish for a reading of his book The Little Fox, followed by a craft and snack. This educational program is designed for children ages 2 through 5. The hour will include story time, crafts and early learning centered activities.

Stand Up Paddleboard (SUP) with Birds & Wildlife

10am–3 pm | Harbor Ramp 2, True North Kayak
Adventures Office

(ALSO AVAILABLE 5/13, 5/14, 5/15)

Take a scenic boat ride by Gull Island and on to the protected waters of Petersen and China Poot Bay. After a shoreside instructional session we will take to the sea to explore the coast, intertidal life, birds, and wildlife from the elevated perspective of a paddleboard. Wetsuits, booties, snacks, hot drinks, and drybags provided. Bring lunch, water, and and bathing suit if you have one, for under wetsuit. Arrive 30 minutes prior to departure time.

Limit 6. $125pp.

The Cooking School at Tutka Bay Lodge

10:30am–3pm | Tutka Bay Lodge - Depart from Mako's
Water Taxi (check in at 10:15am)

(ALSO AVAILABLE 5/13, 5/14, 5/15)

Join award-winning chef and cookbook author Kirsten Dixon for a cooking class featuring the locally inspired cuisine of Tutka Bay Lodge. Travel across Kachemak Bay to learn lodge culinary secrets in a hands-on cooking class, feasting on your creations afterwards. While at the lodge, enjoy opportunities to birdwatch from the deck, to forage for local ingredients, to cook on the famous Widgeon II crabbing boat, and to explore our hiking trail or meander the shoreline before returning to Homer. The class includes round-trip water taxi from Homer to the lodge, hands-on instruction, recipes, and luncheon with wine. Please contact lodge with any allergies or restrictions prior to trip.

Limit 12. $175pp.

Edible & Medicinal Plants of Kachemak Bay Shoreline

10:30am–noon | Bishop's Beach Picnic Shelter
(ALSO AVAILABLE 5/13, 5/14, 5/15)

Nancy Lee-Evans (Anam Cara Program - spiritual development and energy medicine) leads a walk along Bishop's Beach identifying the wild edible and medicinal plants of Kachemak Bay including their nutrition, preparation and uses. Kids are welcome and encouraged with a participating adult. Limit 25. $15pp.

Pacific Flyway Ambassador Talk

noon–12:50pm | Islands & Ocean Visitor Center,
Auditorium

This spring a pair of adventurers from Environment for the Americas' Latino Internship Program will embark on an epic journey, traveling the Pacific flyway from southern California to Alaska. Their mission: to share engaging stories of the intersections between the lives of people and birds, particularly the role and impacts of larger cities on migrating bird populations. Learn how their journey has gone so far, where they will be traveling in Alaska and what they have learned about birds as we commemorate the 100th year of the Migratory Bird Treaty!

Kayak with Birds & Wildlife

1–5pm | Harbor Ramp 2, True North Kayak
Adventures Office

(ALSO AVAILABLE 5/13, 5/14, 5/15;
two trips daily)

See Thursday, 9am listing for description

Songbirds & Their Nests

1–1:50pm | Islands & Ocean Visitor Center,
Auditorium

Local birder Mossy Kilcher presents her original movie about Homer's local songbirds, their nests, habits, and habitats and teaches how to identify the birds by their songs.

eBird Workshop for Beginners

2–2:50pm | Islands & Ocean Visitor Center,
Auditorium

Are you a bird watcher that has thought about using eBird but need a little help or motivation? Or maybe you're already using eBird and would like to learn more about how it works, what it's used for, or how you can take your eBirding to the next level? Join Kara Zwick to discover how eBird will advance your interest in bird watching and citizen science. This workshop will walk through how to manage your account, create checklists, select and create locations, record and document species, and submit your observations.

Seabirds of Alaska

3–3:50pm | Islands & Ocean Visitor Center,
Auditorium

The Alaska Maritime National Wildlife Refuge provides breeding habitat for 40 million nesting seabirds. Join Marianne Aplin to learn about these amazing birds of the sea and get a peek at the new Seabirds of Alaska book illustrated by Festival Artist Ram Papish.

Family Bird Walk

3:30–4:30pm | Beluga Lake Platform

Join CACS naturalists for bird viewing at the Beluga Lake Viewing Platform. Learn to use binoculars to identify waterfowl and forest birds. Family-friendly viewing helps kids learn to identify common birds by their sight and song and be nature detectives. Meet at the turn around at the end of the road to the airport. This fulfills a Jr. Birder requirement.

Shorebirds by Impression, Workshop with Keynotes Kevin Karlson and Dale Rosset

4–5:45pm | Islands & Ocean Visitor Center,
Seminar Room

This indoor workshop presents an alternate approach to shorebird identification that relies on an initial evaluation of physical features to form an accurate foundation for your ID conclusion before analyzing feather details or plumage patterns. By concentrating on the size, body shape and structural features of each bird, a reliable assessment of each species is formed, unaffected by the many plumage conditions possible during the year for most shorebirds. Conscious evaluation of distinctive body motion and behavior for each species further enhances your ability to really "know" shorebirds. A similar approach was given in Kevin's popular book The Shorebird Guide. Digitized comparison photos of similar, hard-to-identify species are included in this program to allow participants to see for themselves how a combination of subtle structural differences and analysis of plumage details results in a more complete ID picture. Limit 40. $20pp.

Viewing Station - Beluga Lake/Airport Viewing Station

4:30–6pm | Beluga Lake/Airport Viewing Station

Shorebirds, waterfowl, raptors, and songbirds — you never know what you'll see at the Beluga Lake Viewing Platform at the end of FAA Road by the airport. The Kachemak Bay Birders host this viewing station with scopes.

Shorebird Festival Kick Off Reception: Birding in Central America

5–6:30pm | Center for Alaskan Coastal Studies, Headquarters, 708 Smokey Bay Way

This year's speaker will be our own Seth Spencer, Education Program/Wynn Coordinator for CASC. He will share slides and insights into his birding experiences in Belize and Guatemala. Come enjoy some good food along with great slides of cool birds! Limit 60. Free, but please register.

Birders, Brews, and Burgers

6–9pm | Beluga Lake Lodge, 204 Ocean Drive Loop

Come enjoy dinner and a beverage at Homer's Beluga Lake Lodge, located between downtown and the Spit. With views of Beluga Lake from both inside and deck seating, you're sure to spot several avian creatures. Dinner and drink specials will include burger basket or chicken strip basket and choice of beverage $14pp, pay on site.

Film Screening: The Messenger

6:30–8pm | Islands & Ocean Visitor Center, Auditorium

(ALSO AVAILABLE 5/15, 1:30–3pm)

"For thousands of years, songbirds were regarded by mankind as messengers from the gods. Today, these creatures woven inextricably into the fabric of our environment are vanishing at an alarming rate. Under threat from climate change, pesticides and more, populations of hundreds of species have dipped dramatically. As scientists, activists and bird enthusiasts investigate this phenomenon, amazing secrets of the bird world come to light for the first time in this acclaimed and visually thrilling documentary. Find out what's killing our birds, why it matters to humans, and what can be done about it." Best Conservation Program Jackson Hole Wildlife Film Festival. Limit 120, $5pp.

Viewing Station - Mud Bay & Lighthouse Village

8:15–9:30pm | Mud Bay and Lighthouse Village

Meet at the base of the Spit, where guides in green vests will help you locate and identify shorebirds feeding in the mudflats. Spotting scopes, binoculars and guidebooks available for use. Please park only in designated areas.

Friday, May 13

High Tide 8:21am 14.7 feet

Barren Islands Birding

7am–5pm | Harbor Ramp 2, Slip E-2, M/V Jackpot

(ALSO AVAILABLE 5/14)

Visit the Barren Islands Bird Rookery on the Alaska Maritime National Wildlife Refuge. A great opportunity to view pelagic seabirds, whales and more during this 100+ mile round trip with a naturalist on board. Dress warmly with rain gear and bring binoculars, bird books and cameras. Lunch included. Enclosed boat with open back access; has facilities. Sponsored by Rainbow Tours. Limit 20. $149pp.

Cranes and Croissants

7–10am | Seaside Farm

(ALSO AVAILABLE 5/12)

See Thursday, 7am listing for event description

Overlook Park Hike

7am–3pm | Islands & Ocean Visitor Center, meet in parking lot

(ALSO AVAILABLE 5/15)

A guided, strenuous 10-mile hike along the north shore of Kachemak Bay to visit Overlook Park, an undisturbed pocket of native coastal habitat and a remote unit of the Alaska State Park system. View shorebirds, sea ducks, marine mammals, ravens and eagles, as well as early songbird migrants and waterfowl around the ponds in the Park. This all-day hike is strenuous due to the length, steepness and uneven terrain, creek crossings and unimproved trail. Bring binoculars, lunch, water, raingear and sturdy, waterproof boots. Proceeds benefit the management of Overlook Park. Presented by Kachemak Bay Conservation Society, led by Laurie Daniel. Limit 12. $15pp (must be at least 12 years old).

Birding Hot Spots No. 1

7:30–10:30am | Islands & Ocean Visitor Center, meet in parking lot

Hop on the bus with Wilderness Birding Adventures' Aaron Lang, and Eagle Optics' Ben Lizadas, to find the hottest spots in Homer's wetlands and forests. There are opportunities to get off the bus and do short walks, so bring binoculars. Rubber boots are recommended. A limited number of scopes will be available. Limit 19. $30pp.

Int./Adv. Shorebird Walk

7:30–9:30am | Mud Bay Spit

Expert birder and member of the Kachemak Bay Birders, George Matz leads this walk out on to the small sandy spit that stretches into Mud Bay. Rubber boots recommended. Park and meet at the parking lot on Kachemak Drive. Limit 20. $7pp.

Beginning Birding by Ear

8–9:30am | Islands & Ocean Visitor Center, Auditorium

Alaska Audubon's Beth Peluso starts you out in the classroom teaching beginning birders basic tips and tricks for identifying and remembering bird songs. The classroom session is followed by time outside to practice the skills you've learned. Dress for the weather. Limit 20. $5pp.

Park and Refuge Bird & Bear Viewing — Chinitna Bay & Chisik Island

8am–4pm | Anchor River State Recreation Area, Lake Tractor Launch

(ALSO AVAILABLE 5/14)

Full day of bird and bear viewing in the remote wilderness of Lake Clark National Park on Cook Inlet's west side. Weather and sea conditions determine our adventure. We'll either visit Chinitna Bay to see big coastal brown bears up close, along with a variety of seabirds, or we'll visit Chisik Island Bird Rookery, where we can spot puffins, kittiwakes, eiders, sea ducks, shearwaters, and more. We may also get out of the boat and walk on the beach and explore tidal flats. This is a full day trip of 7–8 hours. Please bring meals and snacks, water, and rain gear. Trip led by Chinitna Bay Bear Tours. Limit 6. $295pp.

Viewing Station - Mud Bay & Lighthouse Village

8–9:30am | Mud Bay and Lighthouse Village

Indoor Photography Workshop with Keynote Kevin Karlson

9am–11:30am | Islands & Ocean Visitor Center, Seminar Room

Digital photography improvements allow us to capture flight images like never before. Even with these advantages, it is important to learn how to capture and compose a dynamic wildlife image with the most efficient field techniques and camera settings for a variety of situations. Join wildlife photographer Kevin Karlson as he shares basic and advanced techniques for photographing wildlife in action, and gives reasons for selecting one option over others. Topics covered include: basics of composition and image balance; lighting and proper exposure; advantages of using manual exposure for quick lighting compensation and artistic mood; balancing white and dark subjects; subject acquisition and tracking for moving subjects, including autofocus options; and importance of continued practice. This workshop is somewhat technical in nature, with beginners required to know their camera's settings and basic operation. Bring a few jpg files of your work for critique during the last hour. Limit 40. $20pp.

Kayak with Birds & Wildlife

9am–1pm | Harbor Ramp 2, True North Kayak Adventures Office

(ALSO AVAILABLE 5/12, 5/14, 5/15;

KHLT Guided Van Tour

12:30–2:30pm | Islands & Ocean Visitor Center, meet in parking lot

Kachemak Heritage Land Trust, a Homer based non-profit organization, preserves critical fish and wildlife habitat on the beautiful Kenai Peninsula for future generations. Join us for an informative van tour where we visit a variety of unique lands being protected by the Trust. We will visit our Calvin and Coyle Nature Trail, our Gene and Mim Effler Trail (a short trail and viewing platform overlooks a headwater fen— these sensitive wetlands are part of the Bridge Creek Watershed Protection District — Homer’s drinking source,) and view treasured landscapes in the Diamond Creek watershed. This tour offers fantastic educational and photo opportunities as well as gaining knowledge of the importance of land trusts nationwide. Limit 15. Free, but please register.

Beaches, Birds, Brew & Oysters Too!

1–5pm | Meet at the CACS Yurt on the Spit, Harbor Ramp 2, behind Mako’s

(ALSO AVAILABLE 5/14, 5/15)

Hop on the van, departing from the CACS Yurt on the Spit. A CACS Naturalist will lead intertidal exploration on the Homer Spit then head up to Skyline Drive on the bluff above Homer to spot birds of the Boreal Forest. Finally, you’ll land at Homer Brewing Company for a sampler of Fresh Traditional Country Ales and Kachemak Bay Oysters. Limit 10. $85pp.

Creatures of the Dock Tours!

1–3pm | Meet at the CACS Yurt on the Spit, Harbor Ramp 2, behind Mako’s

(ALSO AVAILABLE 5/14, 5/15)

Take a tour of the amazing intertidal life right under your feet at Homer Harbor docks. Based out of the CACS Yurt on the Spit, a trained naturalist will guide you through an amazing exploration of invertebrate life in our Harbor! Creatures of the Dock Tours leave from the yurt on Homer Spit, ten minutes from downtown Homer. Limit 30. $7pp. (Toddlers 2 and under are free.)

Kayak with Birds & Wildlife

1–5pm | Harbor Ramp 2, True North Kayak Adventures Office

(ALSO AVAILABLE 5/12, 5/14, 5/15; two trips daily)

See Thursday, 9am listing for event description

Migratory Bird Treaty Centennial: 100 Years of Conservation

1–1:50pm | Islands & Ocean Visitor Center, Auditorium

Can you imagine a time when thousands of birds covered the sky as far as the eye could see? What happened to these massive flocks of feathered friends and how did their disappearance influence bird conservation around the globe? Join Tamara Zeller and Dr. Rick Lancot with the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service for a look back at the history of the Migratory Bird Treaty Act (MBTA), and how it saved many of the birds that call Alaska home. Follow the plight of the Buff-breasted Sandpiper, learn how the MBTA helped and didn’t help this arctic-breeding shorebird, and what current research has taught us about this magnificent migrant.

Birding Optics 101

2–2:50pm | Islands & Ocean Visitor Center, Seminar Room

An avid birder and sales representative for Eagle Optics, Ben Lizardas talks about considerations when looking for the binoculars or spotting scope that will best suit your needs and your budget. Ben presents a clear understanding of today’s optics options.

Birding Madagascar

2–2:50pm | Islands & Ocean Visitor Center, Auditorium

Madagascar’s exciting flora and fauna, 80% of which is endemic, has long been enticing birders and naturalists. The diversity of species, habitat, and terrain drew Betty Siegel to visit this island nation last October. See unusual birds, enchanting lemurs, fascinating chameleons, and more as she shares photos, stories, and information about Madagascar birds and wildlife.

Impacts of Plastics on Seabirds

3–3:30pm | Islands & Ocean Visitor Center, Seminar Room

Veronica Padula will share her research on the impacts of plastics on Bering Sea seabirds reproduction and survival, population dynamics, and, more broadly, ecosystem health. Sign up for Veronica’s dissection lab after this session to learn more.

Murre Die-off

3:30–4pm | Islands & Ocean Visitor Center, Auditorium

Supervisory Refuge Biologist Heather Renner will discuss the past year’s unusually large seabird die-off, putting it in context against long-term monitoring of seabird breeding colonies and beach surveys. In this science talk she’ll discuss possible factors including extreme temperature anomalies, “the Blob” of warm water, harmful algal blooms, and prey availability.

Gull Island Tour

4–5pm | Harbor Ramp 1, corner of A&C Float, M/V Danny J

(ALSO AVAILABLE 5/14, 4–5pm; 5/15, noon–1pm)

Enjoy a one-hour boat ride aboard this classic wooden boat to Gull Island to view kittiwakes, murres, puffins and other seabirds. Open boat with some cabin seating inside; no facilities. Trip sponsored by Kachemak Bay Ferry. Limit 29. $10pp, $5 kids 12 & under.

Kids Birding Workshop

4–6pm | Center for Alaskan Coastal Studies, Headquarters, 708 Smokey Bay Way

Hands-on explorations to learn about birds! Ages 2–8: Think, Act, and Feel Like a Bird! Investigate feathers and how birds fly, explore bird beaks and the food they eat, dress like a shorebird, go on a scavenger hunt and complete a bird craft. Plus — Whoooo’s up for Owl Fun? Dissect an owl pellet and learn about owls and eagles! Kids rotate through stations and learn about our amazing flying, feathered friends! Limit 60. Free, but please register.

Bird Dissection

4-6pm | Islands & Ocean Visitor Center, Lab Classroom

Join biologist Veronica Padula for this bird dissection workshop following her talk "Impacts of Plastics on Seabirds". You'll dissect a bird, examine the bird's digestive tracts for signs of plastic pollutants, and help collect tissue samples that will contribute to Veronica's ongoing research. This is a free workshop for ages 15-115. Jr Birders and other kids age 8 and up may register for the dissection workshop on Wednesday afternoon. Limit 32. Free, but please register.

Birding Ethiopia

4-4:50pm | Islands & Ocean Visitor Center, Auditorium

Ethiopia, the "Roof of Africa" is a country the size of Alaska. Over 840 species, both resident and migrants, have been observed in this African country, including nearly 40 endemic and near endemics. Join Michelle Michaud as she shares photos and stories of her visit to this beautiful country in search of its bird life and the endemic Ethiopian Wolf.

Welcome Reception for Keynote Speakers and Festival Artist

4-6pm | Pratt Museum

Meet and greet this year's Keynote Speakers, Kevin Karlson, Dale Rosselet, and Sharon Stiteler, along with our Featured Artist, Ram Papish. Enjoy refreshments sponsored by Bear Creek Winery, Grace Ridge Brewing, and the Homer Chamber of Commerce and Visitor Center.

Birds and Beers Social, Hosted by Keynote Sharon Stiteler

6:30-8:30pm | Land's End Resort

Birds and Beers is an informal gathering of birders of all abilities, hosted by Keynote Sharon Stiteler. If you're interested in birds, you're invited. You can meet other bird minded people, maybe find a carpool buddy, ask about where to find target birds, share cool research projects you might be working on, ask a bird feeding question, share life lists, share some digiscoping tips, promote your bird related website, book, tour company: the sky's the limit. It's low key and it's FUN! Sponsored by Land's End Resort.

Walk with Awareness Through Movement

10am-noon | Calvin and Coyle Trailhead

Explore how you walk using the Feldenkrais Method® as we meander the 1.5 mile round-trip trail through meadows, bogs and spruce forests. Midway on the trail we'll reach a platform that overlooks the shorebirds feeding in the Beluga wetlands. This is where you'll learn how to walk and move more efficiently using the Feldenkrais Method®. Put the power back into your stride as you reconnect with how your feet, ankles, knees, hips, spine and even your eyes can be involved with each step. Proceeds benefit the Kachemak Heritage Land Trust, who maintains the trail. Limit 20. $30pp.

Don't miss this unique opportunity to get the entire family up close and personal with live birds! Presenters from Anchorage's Bird Treatment & Learning Center introduce 2-3 different wild birds and discuss their individual histories and natural behaviors. Limit 40. $5pp.

Ram Papish, Artist Workshop: Bird Drawing 101

noon-2pm | Islands & Ocean Visitor Center, Seminar Room

Learn bird sketching basics from the comfort of an indoor setting. A short program taught by 2016 Festival Artist Ram Papish will be followed by hands-on drawing activities. Please bring your drawing pads and pencils if you have them! Limit 20. $20pp.

A VERY SPECIAL THANK YOU TO THE WORLD WILDLIFE FUND

Since 1998, World Wildlife Fund has worked to protect America's most remarkable Arctic species and places. WWF staff collaborates with Native communities, commercial and sport fishing groups, conservation organizations, and a variety of others to tackle the challenging conservation issues facing the Bering, Beaufort, and Chukchi Seas from offices in Anchorage, Homer, and Juneau. With WWF colleagues in other Arctic nations we reach around the globe to coordinate Arctic-wide conservation strategies for a warming and more crowded world.

Today we're committed to eliminating seabird by-catch, minimizing threats posed by increasing trans-arctic shipping, corralling potentially devastating offshore oil development, protecting Bristol Bay from large-scale mining, and to reducing the human/polar bear conflict along Alaska's northern coast.

Since 2008 WWF's US Arctic Program has been a proud sponsor of the Kachemak Bay Shorebird Festival. We salute the Festival's organizers, volunteers, and US Fish and Wildlife Service staff who continue to help us all understand, appreciate, and work to protect our returning shorebirds and the irreplaceable places required to complete their epic life stories.

Check out the WWF website at: <http://worldwildlife.org/>

SPECIAL FILM

The Messenger is a visually thrilling ode to the beauty and importance of the imperiled songbird, and what it means to all of us on both a global and human level if we lose them. Humans once believed that birds could carry messages, their presence was meaningful. They have helped predict the change of seasons, the coming of storms and the rise of toxins in the food chain. Once again they have something to tell us, and the message is not a comfortable one.

Two Screenings:

- Thursday, May 12, 6:30-8pm
  - Sunday, May 15, 1:30-3pm
- Islands & Ocean Visitor Center, Auditorium

REFUGE FRIENDS

Friends of Alaska National Wildlife Refuges is an independent, nonprofit organization dedicated to promoting the conservation of the natural resources of the Alaska National Wildlife Refuges, fostering understanding and appreciation of these refuges, and engaging in activities that assist the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service to fulfill its mission.

This year the Friends of Alaska National Wildlife Refuges entered into a new partnership with the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service to bring you the Kachemak Bay Shorebird Festival. Join the Friends during Sunday's Birders Breakfast to learn more about exciting ways to contribute and get involved!

Keynote Address Sharon Stiteler: 1001 Secrets Every Birder Should Know

6-7:15pm | Mariner Theater, Homer High School
Enjoy humorous and engaging stories about the crazy things birders will do to see their target birds. From going on a Horned Guan death march in Guatemala to getting birds in nudist colonies, birders need to be ready for anything. Based on Sharon "Birdchick" Stiteler's book 1001 Secrets Every Birder Should Know: Tips and Trivia for the Backyard and Beyond. $10pp.

Keynote Address Kevin Karlson & Dale Rosselet: Birds on the Wind

7:45-9pm | Mariner Theater, Homer High School
This multi-media celebration of birds and their fascinating lives, presents an amazing story of the unbelievable feats that birds perform during their migrations to and from breeding areas, and also during movements to wintering areas for attitudinal and irruptive migrants. Mixed with scientific facts and stories about these super human efforts, the stories are presented in a way that appeals to birders and non-birders alike, with superb photos illustrating the beauty and behavior of our migratory birds. Good news is mixed with bad news as Kevin and Dale relate how man has disturbed these movements with forest fragmentation and ill-advised urban building designs, but they also tell how some neotropical songbird migrants have adapted to changing conditions and continue to persevere. $10pp.

Keynote Talk: Kevin Karlson & Dale Rosselet: Birding by Impression: A Different Approach to Knowing and Identifying Birds

11am–noon | Islands & Ocean Visitor Center, Auditorium

Kevin and Dale share their new slant to field identification, highlighted in their book. The topic of this presentation shares a more holistic approach to birding that includes right and left brain strengths to enhance your birding skills as well as a greater awareness of bird's behavior and natural history rather than just a check on your personal list. A description of the approach for Birding by Impression is followed by unique digitized or real life photos that encourages the audience to spot differences between similar species in direct side-by-side comparison. This exciting identification approach concentrates on basic impressions of size, body shape, structural features and motion to form an accurate first impression of birds, with analysis of plumage details and bare parts to follow. This different approach to bird ID is especially geared towards beginning and intermediate birders, but even expert birders will benefit from the new ideas shared here. Limit 120. $5pp.

SPEAKERS, PRESENTERS & GUIDES Bios

Aaron Lang has been addicted to birding since age 11 and his passion has taken him around the world in search of birds. He is a tour leader and owner of Wilderness Birding Adventures, an Alaskan-based bird tour company. He lives in Homer with his wife Robin and daughter Phoebe.

Ben Lizdas is the sales manager for Eagle Optics and an avid birdwatcher as well. His interest in birds and optics dates back to his college years when he was conducting bird surveys on the prairies and oak savannahs of Wisconsin.

Beth Peluso is Audubon Alaska's Communications Manager, using her background in writing, illustration, and publishing to promote Audubon Alaska's research and conservation activities. She has worked or volunteered as a field tech on various bird research projects around the country, including owl surveys in Juneau and a U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service study of Kittlitz's Murrelets in Icy Bay.

Beth Trowbridge is the Executive Director for the Center for Alaskan Coastal Studies and has been leading natural history and science education programs for youth and adults in Homer for over 12 years.

Betty Siegel is an avid birder and world traveler. She is the Volunteer Coordinator for Friends of Alaska National Wildlife Refuges, a long-time volunteer at Islands & Ocean Visitor Center for Alaska Maritime NWR, a member of the Shorebird Festival Planning Committee, a COASST (Coastal Observation and Seabird Survey Team) volunteer, and Kachemak Bay Shorebird montitor.

Carla Stanley plays a key role in the Shorebird Festival Planning Committee for the Alaska Maritime National Wildlife Refuge.

Dale Chorman is a lifelong birder who lives in Homer and has worked as a naturalist in Alaska for over 35 years.

Dave Erickson is a professional biologist with over 40 years of experience birding in Homer. He compiles data for the annual Christmas Bird count in Homer, and has volunteered with the Shorebird Festival since its beginning at the viewing stations, leading bird walks, and giving presentations.

Dawn Harris has guided and managed the public use program for six National Wildlife Refuges along the coast of Oregon for 14 years. Her work involves K-12 marine education, volunteer coordination, natural resource interpretation, community outreach, social media and anything else that involves refuge visitors.

George Matz is an avid birder and conservationist, and an Alaska resident since 1976. Before moving to Homer in 2004, he was active with the Anchorage Audubon Society. Today he serves on the Kachemak Bay Research Reserve Community Council, Homer Fish & Game Advisory Committee, and Kachemak Bay Birders. He teaches a birding course at Kenai Peninsula College and organizes the Kachemak Bay Shorebird Monitoring Project each spring.

Heather Renner is the Supervisory Wildlife Biologist for the Alaska Maritime National Wildlife Refuge.

Jason Sodergren is an electrical engineer, birder and bird bander living in Homer. He is a part of the Shorebird Festival Planning Committee.

John Martin works for the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service, Alaska Region as Regional Refuge Ecologist overseeing the science programs for 16 refuges. John's approach to bird art is sketching from the inside (skeletal structure) to the outside.

Kara Zwickey is the Visitor Center Manager for Islands & Ocean Visitor Center at Alaska Maritime NWR and has been leading environmental education programs for youth and adults with the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service for 9 years. She is part of the Shorebird Festival Planning Committee.

Kendra Bush-St. Louis is the Environmental Education Specialist for Alaska Maritime National Wildlife Refuge, teaching students in grades pre-K through 12th. She is a member of the Shorebird Festival Planning Committee.

Laurie Daniel is a Wildlife Restoration Biologist and a Board member of the Kachemak Bay Conservation Society. Through KBCS, Laurie was very involved in the local effort to establish Overlook Park and has led the springtime hikes during Shorebird Festival for too many years to count.

Mandy Bernard is the Conservation Director at Kachemak Heritage Land Trust. She has a Bachelor of Science, and a Masters degree in Urban and Regional Planning with a focus on the connection between local comprehensive plans, land use planning, and conservation easements.

Marc Webber is the Deputy Refuge Manager at Alaska Maritime National Wildlife Refuge.

Margaret Williams is the Managing Director of World Wildlife Fund's Kamchatka-Bering Sea ecoregion program, leading a team of experts in climate change, wildlife biology, fisheries, oil and shipping, and communications to implement an international conservation strategy for the Bering Sea and Arctic. She has an impressive history of conservation work in Russia and Central Asia.

Marianne Aplin is the Visitors Services Supervisor for Alaska Maritime National Wildlife Refuge.

Michelle Michaud is a Homer resident, who loves birds and world travel. She recently spent three and a half months traveling in Southern Africa and Ethiopia. While in Homer, she participates in a number of citizen science projects, including the Kachemak Bay Birder's Shorebird Monitoring project and COASST (Coastal Observation and Seabird Survey Team).

Mossy Kilcher has lived in Homer her entire life, and is an artist, photographer, and an avid lifelong birder. Her main passion is filming and photographing birds, especially songbirds, documenting their habits, and collecting their songs. She is an active member of several bird organizations, and contributes material to the Cornell Lab of Ornithology.

Nancy Lee-Evans is an author, teacher, counselor, bodyworker, and the founding director of the Anam Cara Program. This is Nancy's 4th year offering botanical and Celtic knowledge workshops during the Festival.

Nils Warnock is Audubon Alaska's State Director, leading all of Audubon's programs and initiatives related to Alaska. He has studied shorebirds and waterfowl across Alaska and has published extensively, especially on the ecology of shorebirds. His publications include more than 50 scientific articles in peer-reviewed books and journals, as well as articles in popular magazines such as Natural History and Birding.

Poppy Benson is a founding mother of the Kachemak Bay Shorebird Festival and is recently retired from the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service.

Rich Kleinleder is a wildlife biologist specializing in environmental impact analysis. He has donated his expertise as a local guide for the Festival since its creation.

Dr. Rick Lanctot is the Shorebird Coordinator for the United States Fish & Wildlife Service, Migratory Bird Management.

Seth Spencer is the Center for Alaskan Coastal Studies' Education Program Coordinator. Seth arrived in Homer in the spring of 2015, by way of Kentucky, North Carolina, and Minnesota. He enjoys traveling and birding with his wife Kara.

Steve Delehanty is the Manager of the Alaska Maritime National Wildlife Refuge.

Tamara Zeller has worked as an Outreach Biologist for the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service, Migratory Bird Management.

Veronica Padula is working on her PhD in Marine Biology through the University of Alaska Fairbanks/Anchorage. Her research investigates the impacts of plastic marine debris on seabirds from the Bering Sea, specifically looking at whether or not seabirds are exposed to the harmful chemicals associated with plastics.

Thank You

The Kachemak Bay Shorebird Festival Committee would like to thank each and every one of our presenters for their energy and enthusiasm, and for sharing their vast wealth of knowledge during this year's Festival.

Open Saturday-Sunday, 11am-4pm

Alaska Wild Berry Emporium, 528 E. Pioneer Ave.

A unique indoor market in the heart of downtown Homer, offering a variety of handmade arts and crafts, wildcrafted products, fresh local produce, and more. Wildcraft workshops throughout the weekend. Vending opportunities are available. Contact Scott at 907-399-6289 for more information.

Beer Tasting & Oysters

Open daily, noon-7pm

Homer Brewing Company, 1411 Lake Shore Drive

Sip, slurp, chirp and fly. Tap room open daily at noon for flights and pints. Fresh shucked Jakolof Bay Oysters on the half shell pair well with any of our draughts, including birder favorite Red Knot Scottish Ale.

Bike Rentals and Adventures

Open daily, call for hours, 907-226-2925

Cycle Logical, 3585 East End Road #8 and Spit Rd

Unleash the versatility of the Fat Bike and ride where you've never ridden before. Built for the softer terrains of sand and snow, you'll find these bikes comfortable no matter where your ride. Looking for something a bit more casual? We've got cruisers as well! These are the perfect bike for exploring our scenic bike paths and for visiting all the shops and art galleries on the Homer Spit and Downtown.

James Buncak Retrospective, Art Exhibit

Monday-Saturday, 1-5pm

Homer Council on the Arts Gallery, 335. W. Pioneer Ave.

This exhibit will include a smattering of drawings and paintings from each decade of Buncak's work, from very early in his artistic career in the early 1970s to present day. This exhibit will unequivocally demonstrate the transformational process that time and experience contribute to an artist's development. He moved to Homer in 1984, where he began to paint the landscapes and people of our area. James has taught life drawing, and has exhibited his work in Cordova and Kenai, Alaska, and at the Bill Parks Gallery in Chicago.

Pancake Breakfast

Saturday, May 14th, 7:30am-noon

Homer United Methodist Church next to the Homer High School at the beginning of East End Road

Don't go birding on an empty stomach! Friends of Kachemak Bay State Parks and the Kachemak Bay State Park Citizen's Advisory Board invite you to a hearty, all-you-can-eat pancake breakfast, with sausage, juice, coffee, and tea included. Cheerfully served by Alaska State Park Rangers and volunteers. All proceeds help support the volunteer trail crews. $10pp, $5 kids under 11.

Wine Tasting & Tours at Bear Creek Winery

Open Daily, 10am-6pm

3 miles out East End Road, 60203 Bear Creek Drive

It's time again for our special SHOREBIRD wine! Fly into Alaska's favorite tasting room to experience this custom blend and other unique wines made from local fruits and berries. Curious how wine is made? Come tour our Production Facility, May 13-14, at 11am, located just up the hill from the Tasting Room. Call 907-235-8484 for more information.
